Florida Bar Induction Ceremony to be Held September 25

Ave Maria School of Law will welcome the newest members of The Florida Bar with a Bar Induction Ceremony at 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, September 25, in the St. Thomas More Commons. The Honorable Hugh D. Hayes, Collier Circuit Judge in the 20th Judicial Circuit, will administer the Oath of Admission. A reception will follow the ceremony.

I cordially invite all of our alumni who recently took the bar examination and their families to attend this celebration. To RSVP, contact Karen Grebing, Director of Alumni Affairs, at kgrebing@avemarialaw.edu or (239) 687-5404.

Ave Maria School of Law Hosting Former U.S. Ambassador to the Holy See Francis Rooney and Dr. Henry Lee, One of the World's Foremost Forensic Scientists

A Faith and Reason Signature Event featuring Ambassador Francis Rooney, former United States Ambassador to the Holy See, will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 30, in the St. Thomas More Commons.

Appointed by President George W. Bush during a period of immense change and challenge for the United States, the Catholic Church, and the world, Ambassador Francis Rooney served as United States Ambassador to the Holy See, the governing body of the Catholic Church, from 2005 through 2008.

His new book, The Global Vatican, captures the interwoven nature of religious and political power and the complexities, battles, and future prospects for the relationship between the Holy See and the United States as both face challenges old and new.

Deadline for submissions to be considered for inclusion in the Dean's Newsletter is the first day of each month.

Ave Maria School of Law is honored to host Ambassador Rooney, who has a true insider's view into the complex world of the Vatican and the history of its relationship with the United States. I invite you to attend this event to hear his insightful remarks.

A second Faith and Reason Signature Event on Tuesday, November 11, will feature Dr. Henry C. Lee, one of the world's foremost forensic scientist. His presentation, "Former Cases Revisited and Lessons Learned," will begin at 7:00 p.m. at The Club at the Strand, 5840 Strand Boulevard in Naples.

Dr. Lee has been a prominent player in many of the most challenging cases of the last 50 years. Dr. Lee has worked with law enforcement agencies in helping to solve more than 8,000 cases. Dr. Lee's testimony figured prominently in the O. J. Simpson, Jason Williams, Peterson, and Kennedy Smith Trials; and in convictions of the "Woodchipper" murderer. He has assisted local and state police in their investigations of other famous crimes, such as the murder of Jon Benet Ramsey, the 1993 suicide of White House Counsel Vincent Foster, the death of Chandra Levy, the kidnapping of Elizabeth Smart, and the reinvestigation of the Kennedy assassination.

It is a great honor for Ave Maria School of Law to host Dr. Lee, who is a landmark in modern-day criminal investigations. Please join us for this glimpse into the real world of forensic science.

For additional information and to RSVP for the events, contact Jean Takacs at jtakacs@avemarialaw.edu or (239) 687-5405.

The Federalist Society Student Division Presenting Series of Speakers

On September 3, The Federalist Society Student Division at Ave Maria School of Law hosted its first speaker of the year, Mr. Ryan T. Anderson. Mr. Anderson, the William E. Simon Fellow in Religion and a Free Society at The Heritage Foundation, presented “Marriage: What it is, Why it Matters, and the Consequences of Redefining it.”

Mr. Anderson, who joined The Heritage Foundation’s DeVos Center for Religion and Civil Society in 2012, also is the editor of Public Discourse, the online journal of the Witherspoon Institute of Princeton, N.J. His recent work at Heritage focuses on the constitutional questions surrounding same-sex “marriage.” He is the co-author with Princeton’s Robert P. George and Sherif Girgis of the acclaimed book What is Marriage? Man and Woman: A Defense.

Upcoming speakers include Mr. Curtis Dubay, Research Fellow at The Heritage Foundation, and Ms. Tessa Dysart, Assistant Professor at Regent University School of Law. Mr. Dubay will present “U.S. Businesses Moving Overseas: Should We Stop Them and How?” at 12:20 p.m. on Wednesday, October 1. Ms. Dysart’s presentation, “Child, Victim, or Prostitute? Justice through Immunity for Prostituted Children,” will be presented at 12:20 p.m. on Thursday, October 30.

Mr. Ryan T. Anderson, The Federalist Society Student Division President Kate Oliveri (Class of 2015), and Professor Richard S. Myers.

Ave Maria School of Law was founded in Ann Arbor, Michigan, in 1999 and in 2009 relocated to Naples, Florida. It is licensed by the Florida Commission for Independent Education, License Number 4007 and is fully accredited by the American Bar Association.
